Online Education

1. Does all programs/courses were completed on time.	Yes
2. Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs.	When the pandemic situation and lockdown started, the educational institutions didn't expect it to be widespread and long lasting. so online education were not immediately sought. The Pandemic situation has resulted in shut down of colleges and students were out of classes. When our Institution authorities realized that the Covid-19 pandemic was not vanishing any time soon and the prolonged delaying of learning was affecting the blooming graduates, online medium of education were desperately switched to. As a result, education has changed dramatically with the distinctive rise of e learning, whereby teaching is undertaken remotely on digital platforms. Integration of information technology in education was accelerated in Arulmigu Palaniandavar Arts College for Women. The new norm involves the teacher reciting the same lecture to the same students, just miles away from each other, with only a thin string of internet, making it possible for them to be connected so intimately even from afar. There were, however, challenges to overcome. Initially there was some struggle among some students without reliable internet access and technological struggle to participate in digital learning. Faculty member of the college were given separate G suite mail Id to enable teaching through online mode. Recording option supported the slow learners and students who missed the class to listen again to the lectures. Students were well acquainted with the online tools like Google classroom, Zoom, Weber, telegraphic link, what's app, you tube etc., Flexible schedules were prepared, and teaching learning made ease.by repeated demonstration online learning was made convenient for the students. They were very flexible thereafter. The Heads of the Department and the class tutors made initiative to bring the students under the online mode of teaching. The course materials were posted in google classroom. Almost care has been taken to maintain efficacy of quality teaching learning, interaction and communication amongst the students and faculty members. The opinion of various stakeholders was also considered during the online teaching. Satisfactory level of the students checked continuously regarding their understanding, receiving course materials and so on. Faculty members got familiarized with online teaching tools offering significant benefits such as recording classes, sharing voice and text messages, software's available for recording and editing audios, tools for creating online audio assignments. The institution as whole is aware of many teachings learning tools to make online education more effective. The role of teacher's students and parents during online education are equally important. Prior to initiate online teaching teachers train themselves the delivery content, which gives clarity in communication and helps to impart innovative techniques. Internet connectivity in rural areas were considered while delivering the course content and lecture. The teachers will be properly prepared and trained to use ICT and electronic teaching resources. The course materials were made available to students before conducting online session. Students are advised to read those contents prior to attending the online session. In online session, faculty hold a discussion session on the topic of uploaded/delivered course materials, thus maintaining interactive session. The institution implements suitable strategies to encourage the completion of Projects &Dissertations by the UG and PG students. Evaluation was also conducted through online mode effectively.
